RESILIENCE MONTH 2026

Executive Order Number 29 s. 2017 mandates the observance of the National Disaster Resilience Month (NDRM) by all Filipinos throughout the country through the conduct of activities relative to building disaster resilience. It also states the shift of focus from disaster awareness building to the promotion of significant disaster resilience which pertains to the ability of individuals, communities, organizations, and states to adapt to and recover from the effects of hazard and disasters through effective risk management.

This 2026, the National Disaster Risk Reduction and Management Council (NDRPMC), through the Office of Civil Defense (OCD), leads the celebration of the 38th National Disaster Resilience Month with the theme "Naghahanda at Kumikilos tungo sa Panatag na Bagong Pilipinas".

At the regional level, this Office will lead a series of activities to highlight the month-long celebration:
